

Chatman Carruthers joined the Georgia Prostate Cancer Coalition in 2000 shortly after its inception. Chatman was diagnosed with Prostate Cancer in 1999 and underwent a Radical Prostatectomy in 1999 and in 2000 received several radiation treatments. Chatman is a retired Purchasing professional with over 35 years' experience working with several fortune 500 corporations. A consummate professional with outstanding analytical abilities. Chatman is married with a 24 year old son. Chatman loves playing golf, singing, playing the piano, as well and tuning and repairing pianos.

Education:

Topeka High School, Topeka, Kansas

Kansas University, Bachelor of Science, Business Administration

Certifications:

Certified Purchasing Manager- lifetime

Six Sigma Green Belt

Affiliations:

Former member – Institute for Supply Management

Present Member – Piano Technicians Guild